

ANZWEE 2012 Program of Events

Thursday August 30th

9.15-9.30      Arrival and Registration, MBS Learning Link (LL) Building, First Floor

9.30-9.45      Welcome and announcements

Experimetrics Sessions by Peter Moffatt, University of East Anglia

9.45-10.45      Experimetrics Session 1, Loneragan Computer Lab, LB3.034

10.45-11.00      Coffee

11.00-12.30      Experimetrics Session 2, Computer Lab

12.30-1.30      Lunch, MBS Learning Link

1.30-3.30      Experimetrics Session 3, Computer Lab

3.30-3.45      Coffee

3.45-5.30      Experimetrics Session 4, Computer Lab

5.30-6.30      Drinks, MBS Learning Link building

6.30-              Informal dinner arrangements, suggestions given on the day

Friday August 31st

9.30-10.30      Plenary Speaker      Terry Connolly, University of Arizona,

10.30-10.50      Coffee

Social Preferences and Coordination

10.50-11.20      Ralph Bayer, University of Adelaide, "Cooperation and Distributional Conflict"

11.20-11.50      Le Zhang, UNSW, "Pro-social, anti-social, or both? That is the question"

11.50-12.20      Andreas Ortmann, UNSW, "Social Impact Bonds: theory and evidence"

12.20-1.30	Lunch
1.30-2.15	Semi-Plenary Andrea Isoni, University of Warwick Business School, "Efficiency, equality and labelling: an experimental investigation of focal points in explicit bargaining"
2.15-2.45	Stephen Cheung, University of Sydney, "Norms, beliefs and selfish bias in conditional cooperation"
2.45-3.15	Maros Servatka, University of Canterbury , "ABC on deals"
3.15-3.30	Coffee
3.30-4.00	Ananta Neelim, Monash University, "Religious identity and trust in close knit rural communities"
4.00-4.30	Nick Feltovich, Monash University, "Do positional goods inhibit life-cycle saving? Experimental evidence"
4.30-5.00	Soo Keong Yong, University of Queensland, "The impact of time-consistent emission tax on clean technology"
5.00-6.00	Drinks, MBS LL
6.00-8.00	Conference Dinner, Club Murdoch

Saturday September 1st

9.30-10.30	Plenary Speaker Peter Moffatt, University of East Anglia, "Hurdle models in experimental economics"
10.30-10.50	Coffee

Malleable Preferences

10.50-11.20	Lana Friesen, University of Queensland, "Complexity in superannuation choices: an experiment"
11.20-11.50	Kevin Wu, Monash University, "Social comparison, aspirations, priming"
11.50-12.20	Ganna Pogrebna, University of Sheffield, "Preference reversals and range effects"

12.20-1.30      Lunch

Risk Preferences

- 1.30-2.15      Semi-Plenary    Andrea Isoni, University of Warwick Business School,
“Sequential expected utility theory: sequential sampling in economic decision making under risk”
- 2.15-2.45      David Butler, Murdoch University, “Eliciting strength of preference judgments using money incentives: panacea or chimera?”
- 2.45-3.15      Phil Grossman, Monash University, “Loving the long shot: risk taking with skewed gambles”
- 3.15-3.30      Coffee

Field Experiments

- 3.30-4.00      Lionel Page, Queensland University of Technology, “Variations in risk preferences following large losses”
- 4.00-4.30      Vinayak Dixit, UNSW, “The subjective risks of driving”
- 4.30-5.00      Steven Schilizzi, University of Western Australia, “Experiments for evaluating conservation tenders”
- 5.00-5.30      Markus Schaffner, Queensland University of Technology, “Stressful votes and economic decisions”
- 5.30-          Informal dinner arrangements

Sunday September 2nd

- 9.30-12.00      As it is Father’s Day and some will have departed, I propose a brain-storming session for the rest of us. Please give consideration to possible topics you think it useful for Australia-New Zealand based experimental economists to address collectively. We can set an agenda during the workshop.
- 12.00          End of Workshop